EXPERIENCE THE NATURE COAST

There is a wonderful wildlife presence and historical background to be experienced in North Florida. One of the most historical places is Dixie County, which holds the unincorporated community of Old Town. This is the perfect place to enjoy outdoor activities.

Just east Of Old Town lies the Suwannee River Railroad bridge, sight of the sunken 141' steamer, City of Hawkinsville. Its purpose was to bring lumber for the construction of the railroad, which ultimately rendered it obsolete. The wreck is still almost completely intact and because of the clear water, you can view it below the river's surface.

At this site you can start a leisurely walk, or bike ride, along the Suwannee River on the Nature Coast Greenway Trail to Cross City. Converted from the route of the historic Atlantic Coastline Railroad, this 12-mile section of the state trail is the perfect place to enjoy the natural surroundings of North Florida's Nature Coast.

The colorful mosaic of South Florida mixes nature, culture and life's finer things. In this subtropical paradise you'll encounter everything from laid back waterfront retreats to high-energy, big-city getaways and of course, world-famous sunsets.

To the west is the "Culture Coast" where you can explore beautiful cities like Sarasota and Naples. Along with highend shopping and dining options, you'll find a wealth of fine arts and cultural venues plus award-winning beaches. Step to the lively Latin beat of Miami, sway to the calypso rhythms of the Florida Keys or thrill to music of a different sort – the whir of line spinning off your reel. Try deep-sea fishing off Fort Lauderdale or pursue largemouth bass in Lake Okeechobee.

And for nature lovers, the Everglades National Park offers endless eco-adventures such as hiking and kayaking and is the perfect spot to view herons, alligators and maybe even the endangered Florida panther.

The only thing better than being one with nature is enjoying her bounty together. Here in The Florida Keys, you'll discover endless miles of camping experiences, from full-amenity RV resorts and cozy cabins to fishing lodges and primitive tent sites. Whether you're into diving, snorkeling, fishing, kayaking or paddleboarding, it truly is the greater outdoors.
